About the Musicians

Mike Rychlik is a long time Tallahassee singer / songwriter / composer / and band leader who has written, played and produced albums for the likes of The Labamba Brothers, Flip Side, Muffin Men and most recently Harvest Gypsies. Mike is also a member of the Miccosukee Land Co-op and the Minister of Entertainment for the Keep It Rural Coalition.

Warren Sutton is a long time Tallahassee musician and songwriter and played with the likes of River Breeze and Labamba Brothers. Warren's jazz fusion guitar style is chock full of thoughtful chord variations and embellishments.

Bill Petersen is a singer / songwriter, guitarist extraordinaire and long time member of the Miccosukee Land Co-op who has performed for years on the MLC stage and in venues in Tallahassee. Bill will be joined by an acoustic ensemble with Dave Dickle, Angie Prayther, Dennis Hardin and Larry Coltharp.

About our Chef

Dennis St. Pierre Charles hails from New Orleans and Baton Rouge Louisiana. He's been cooking up a storm of Cajun fare here at MLC since arriving about a year ago.
